Biocellulose masks Second Skin are an alternative to professional skincare treatments

Skin to Skin technology:

- Masks fit like a second skin, replicating the facial contour without sliding;
- Tight adherence ensures a lympho-drainage effect;
- Air blockage in the upper layers of the mask ensures deeper penetration of the serum into the skin.

Biocellulose masks Second Skin are able to perfectly restore the skin, especially after traumatic treatments (chemical or laser peeling, microdermabrasion, etc).

10 times more effective than ordinary fabric masks.

Biocellulose is a fiber produced as a result of coconut fermentation; its diameter is 2-100 nanometers — 1000 times thinner than human hair.

Why biocellulose masks are better than simple fabric ones? — They:

- Replicate the contour of the face and adhere very tightly;
- Enable the serum to penetrate deeper;
- Excel at retaining moisture, thus outperform any other mask in transferring higher volumes of active components to the skin;
- Can be applied in a beauty salon and at home;
- Do not require any special training;
- Are hypoallergenic.
